

What to do?

What to do? How to BE?
Actions to take? Is it time to see?
Which path to tread. Are you on track?
Or do you wish you could turn back?

What you can see here this day
It is not certain that it will stay.
But ~ as you all roll along,
Be sure to sing your simple song.

Me oh me oh me oh my,
I know that I can touch the sky.
Yai oh yai oh yai yaia,
Farewell our sweet Sophia Gaia!

Each day a new experience
Opportunity for growth never relents.
Be not sad, it is time to grow
And forward on your path to go.

Sophia Gaia also moves on
Some parts of her will soon be gone.
She tells us now it comes to pass
That she must take this unique chance.

A way for us to start afresh,
At first looks a bit like death.
But instead it is exit from this "dome",
So you can at last find your way home!!
